Please update your membership list by September 1 to increase your unit's chances of winning this award.

Guidelines

For

LIFETIME MEMBERSHIP

This award will establish a group of individuals that potentially will be recognized as stable leaders that contribute significantly in the building of a historical organization, serving mankind and their respective community.

Each squad should submit one candidate from their squad to the Awards Committee, in accordance with the following guidelines:

1. T.A.R.S. member for at least 10 years.
2. Contributes significantly to the up-building of the Tennessee Association of Rescue Squads
3. Provides outstanding leadership in the Rescue Squad Movement, own squad, and community

The Awards Committee will select two candidates for the “Lifetime Membership” Award. Two Plaques will be prepared and presented at the Convention Awards Ceremony, along with the reading of the winner’s qualifications.

Guidelines For John H. Bird Valor Award

Mr. John H. Bird, member of the Greeneville Emergency and Rescue Squad, Inc., is a Past President and Life member of the Tennessee Association of Rescue Squads. He served as the first Executive Director of the Association for twenty years. Through John's many years of service, he has helped each and every Rescue Squad in Tennessee. The results of his dedication, hard work and his ability to work with the State Legislature will have a lasting effect on the rescue movement in Tennessee. John Continues to serve the Association and the State Office as a Volunteer.

The JOHN H. BIRD VALOR AWARD is to be given to the members of the Tennessee Association of Rescue Squads who lose their life in the line of duty.

Nominations are to be made by the member's squad to the TARS Award Committee. All nominations that are approved by the committee will receive the award.

When making nominations consider the following information:

1. Date and place of occurrence.
2. Details of the occurrence.
3. Press releases or news clippings of the occurrence.

Plaques in honor of each recipient will be presented to their family and/or their squad at the TARS Annual Convention.

Prepared and submitted by the 1999 TARS Awards Committee

Guidelines For JOHN STILES AWARD

The “John Stiles” Award is given each year by the Kingsport Lifesaving Crew to a member of the Tennessee Association of Rescue Squads, who is chosen from nominations sent to the Awards Committee by his squad.

John Stiles was a charter member and one of the organizers of the Kingsport Lifesaving and First Aid Crew. He devoted much of his time in the early days to establishing progress and fellowship activities for members to become more involved in crew activities.

Activities to be considered when nominating a member for this award:

1. Current or life member of your squad.
2. Willingness to help maintain building and equipment.
3. Interest in promoting a well-trained squad.
4. Spends time with new members to build their interest and confidence in lifesaving activities.
5. Stays abreast of new training methods and procedures and passes them on to new members.
6. Build morale with good fellowship in squad.
7. Presents himself to the public in a responsible manner when engaged in crew activities.
